More than 60 UVRF members and coaches mounted a strong showing in Boston last weekend at the 59th Head of the Charles Regatta. Tens of thousands of spectators cheered every boat from the start to the finish, lining the shoreline & crowding onto the top all seven bridges that span the famed three-mile course.

In addition to those who earned 1st or 2nd place honors, four all- or mostly-UVRF crews had super-strong showings:

Tracy Glover, Anne Boucher, Ala Piotrowski, Rowan Carroll, Carin Reynolds, Erika Dade, & Ann Bracken finished 4th in a Lucky Charms 60+ eight. Peter Kermond, Ala, Bill Purdy & Carin finished 5th in a 25-boat mixed quad race. Linda M, Rowan, and Tracy were three of the scullers in a quad that finished 5th. Anne B, Carin, & Tracy were in the quad that finished 6th in the same race.

Kristin Burdick in the 3-seat, Liz Hackett, Vicki May, Pam Tengdin, Debbie Hannam, Heather Shand & Amy Sniffen (cox) get ready for the start. The men's & women's 5:30/6:00 am fall Sweep boat programs, coached by Christine Perry & Chuck Nagle, both sent 8+ & 4+ teams to HOCR.

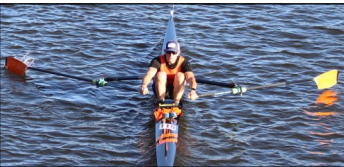

← Susan Brighton, 2-seat, & Donna Morris-Calvey in the bow of the women's eight.

EDITOR'S NOTE: I wish I could have fit everyone on our great HOCR team on this page. Congratulations to every one of you!

Top to bottom:
Roelof Versteeg & Joe Paduda (60+)
Tim Denny (70+)

UVRF's cancer survivors' CREW crew heads for the Eliot Bridge and the turn to the finish line in the 11-boat Survivors Row event. R to L: Coach Chuck Nagle, cox, Paula Rugg, Tom Riggs, Megan Bouchard, Erika Weliczko, Kate Devine, And Morse, Bob Wohlfort, & Mary Merges. Dini Ligett Capsis was CREW's standby sub.

The women's four had a rocky race—another boat ran into them along the way—but (R to L) Martha Beattie, Elizabeth Glenshaw, Leslie Sonder, & Kathy Harvard look great on their way past the Cambridge Boat Club to the finish at Harvard.

UVRF's men's four crew members, in the basin by Boston University and MIT, test their strength in the run-up to the start. (L to R): Dylan Mroszczyk-McDonald, stroke, Doug Calvey, Joe Jones, Paul Kutia, and Lucy Wilcox, cox.
